DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bolie of record for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 10/31/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Bolie does not teach an RF environment device and applicant further argues that examiner's reference to Col. 1, lines 10-15 of Bolie is an audio frequency range.

Applicant's arguments are not convincing. In Col. 1, lines 10-15 of Bolie it clearly states that the device signals are in the range of 50 cycles to 10,000 cycles per second. Since 10,000 cycles per second (i.e. 10 kHz) is well within the RF frequency spectrum the Bolie circuit does indeed operate in an RF environment and thus it can be considered RF circuitry and components.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-20 remain allowed.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
